

Insurance and Tuition Scholarship Values 2023-24

Insurance Values:

Insurance rates typically change in January after the rates for the calendar year are announced

Insurance	9 and 12-month Contracts	Fall Semester Only	Winter Semester Only
Medical	$ 6987	$ 2620	$ 4367
Vision Care	$ 28	$ 10	$ 18
Dental	$ 275	$ 103	$ 172

Tuition Values:

Tuition rates typically change in July

9-month appointments - 20 graduate credits (10 per Fall and Winter semesters)

12-month appointments - 22 graduate credits (10 per Fall and Winter semesters and 2 per S/S semester*)

Tuition Rate	Resident (9-month)	Non-resident (9-month)	Resident (12-month)	Non-resident (12-month)
Regular Graduate	$17,366	$34,969	$19,368	$38,750
Engineering, Business & Information Science	$19,636	$37,418	$21,883	$41,444
Fine, Performing & Communications Arts	$17,949	$35,731	$20,028	$39,588
Medicine	$20,933	$37,800	$23,310	$41,864
Nursing	$22,742	$40,524	$25,300	$44,860
Pharmacy & Kinesiology	$19,274	$37,056	$21,485	$41,045

*To maintain uniformity among all graduate assistantships, the S/S semester tuition scholarship is now two graduate credits, consistent with the GEOC/AFT Labor Agreement. This means that letters of offer for all 12-month GRAs and GSAs should indicate a maximum scholarship of two graduate credits for the S/S semester. However, faculty members supporting GRAs on their grants may choose to pay more than the two graduate credits during the S/S semester.

June 28, 2023