

“RECONCEIVING THE PILL: FROM REVOLUTIONARY THERAPEUTIC TO LIFESTYLE DRUG”

This talk traces the arc of the history of the birth control pill, from life-changing and revolutionary in the 1960s to life-enhancing and commonplace today. The transition in the pill’s status reveals sweeping changes in the trajectories of women, birth control, and pharmaceutical use over the last six decades.

WHEN

September 27, 2017

12:30-2:00pm

WHERE

Community Room, UGL

3RD FLOOR, Adamany Undergraduate Library

Dr. Elizabeth Watkins

University of California San Francisco, Dean of the Graduate Division, Vice Chancellor of Student Academic Affairs, Professor of History of Health Science

SPONSORS:

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

GENDER, SEXUALITY, AND WOMEN'S STUDIES

